

11147NAT

DIPLOMA OF PROJECT CONTROLS

Total Units

11 units (9 core units
and 2 elective units)

Course Duration

1 year

Delivery Mode

In-class/online lectures

Course

Part-Time or Full- Time

About Us

We are a specialist niche education organisation established to develop a skillset in Project Management, Project Controls and improving delivery of complex projects and programmes.

We are focused on upskilling the global workforce and do this by enabling organisations to achieve their business goals by educating their workforce.

We tailor learning pathways for individuals and businesses, from beginners to expert level.

COURSE OUTLINE

Who should consider this qualification?

Individuals looking to move into the project controls space and be equipped with the right skills and knowledge

Existing professionals looking to expand their skills and knowledge across the project controls spectrum of time, cost and risk

Organisations looking to bolster their project controls capability. This may be through recruiting aspiring project controls staff to be trained and/or to train existing staff members

Entry Requirements

To apply for the Diploma of Project Controls the applicants should possess the following:

- Completion of year 12 or equivalent
- Proficiency in English (IELTS minimum score of 6.5)
- Completion of bachelor's degree in engineers or business (optional)
- Minimum of 3 years of work experience in delivering projects (optional)

Recognition of Prior Learning (education)

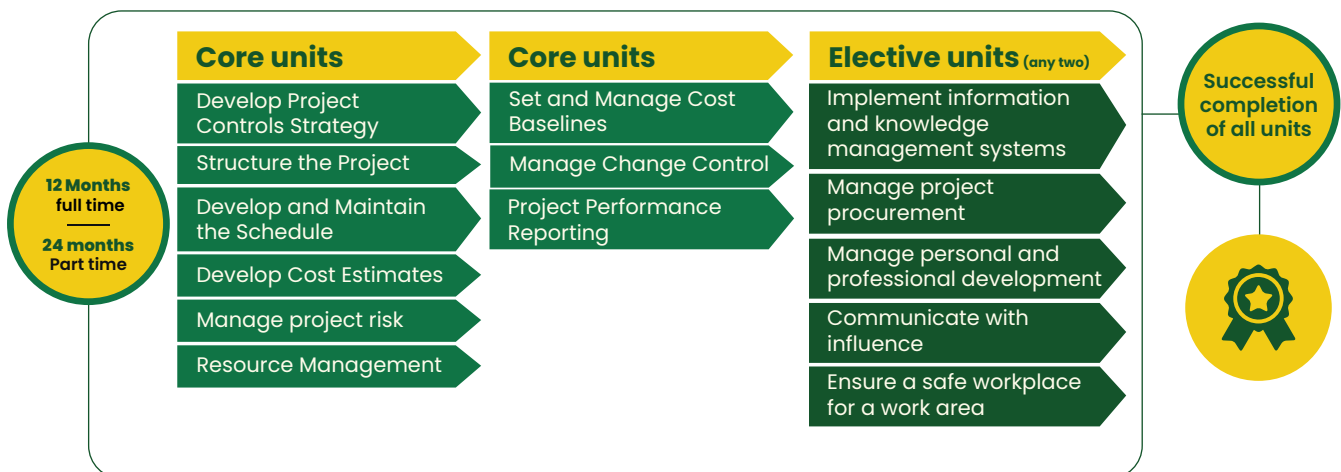

Depending on the student's current skills and experience student can qualify for Recognition of Prior Learning and be eligible for course acceleration.

Course delivery

Our course is delivered in the classroom as well as online. The course can be completed in 12 months with a full-time study, load or in 24 months on a part-time study load and the minimum course enrolment duration is one year. During the course, students will have access to industry-relevant drop-in sessions and tutorials.

Diploma in Project Controls

Register your interest now

To register your interest with the Diploma of Project Controls please submit your inquiry to aus@projectcontrolsinstitute.com

Approved by

Australian Government
Australian Skills Quality Authority